

Charles Clough
 Charles was born in Brooklyn, NY and grew up on Long Island. He completed his BS in Math and did graduate work in atmospheric science at MIT. He attended Dallas Theological Seminary where he earned a Th.M. in Old Testament Hebrew. A well-respected Bible scholar, with a scientific background, Charlie is a much sought-after conference speaker and teacher. He is on the Board of Advisors and serves as a member of the Adjunct Faculty of Chafetz Theological Seminary.

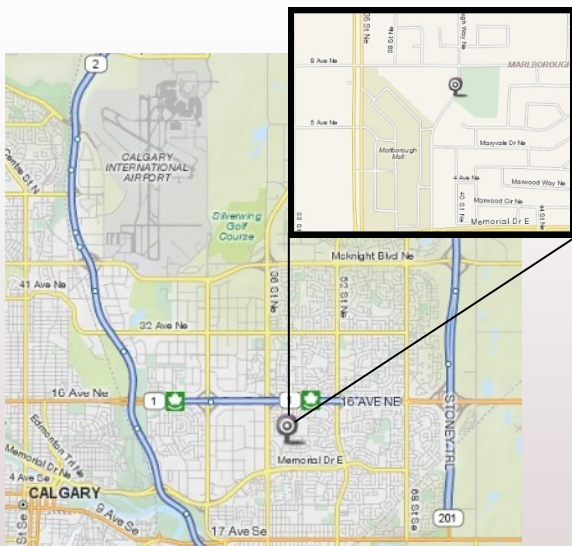

Art Sadlier
 Art is a Baptist pastor, and has planted and pastored churches in Ontario, New Brunswick and New York State. He is now involved in an itinerant ministry of bible teaching, prophecy, exhortation and evangelism. The purpose of Sound The Trumpet is to seek to cause men and women to glorify God through the dissemination of truth as found in God's Word. They understand that prophecy and its fulfillment are given by God to prove to men that He is the Sovereign Lord of the Universe who knows the end from the beginning and that the Bible is His Word.

Carl Teichrib
 Carl has authored specialized reports and over 125 articles on globalization and its many sub-topics. He has been an accredited observer and/or participant in a variety of international events, including the United Nations Millennium Forum, the UN Third World Urban Forum, Global Governance 2002, and other major global conferences. He is currently President of the World Systems Research Group and a Senior Fellow with The August Review.
